

Kameron Middlebrooks

IOWA

Kameron was born in Atlanta, GA in 1989, but raised in Des Moines, IA. Kameron is a 2007 graduate from Roosevelt High School. While there he was the Varsity Captain in both football and track. High school was also where he joined his local NAACP Youth Council. By his senior year in high school Kameron grew deeply involved in the NAACP serving as Youth Council Treasurer.

A year after becoming treasurer Kameron ran to be the Region IV Chairperson and the campaigned to serve as the Youth Representative to the National Board Directors. In 2008 he was seated. He serves on committees such as Membership & Units, Scholarships Sub-Committee, Convention Planning, Election Supervisory Committee, and the National Youth Works Committee.

After high school, Kameron attended the University of South Dakota on a full athletic/football scholarship. He majors in Marketing and Business Management. He has future aspirations of entering a MBA program after finishing his undergraduate study and plans to continue his work for the NAACP.