

Celebrating a Century

NAACP's 100 Years in Pictures

The NAACP is built on the collective courage of people of all races, nationalities and faiths united in one premise - that all men and women are created equal. From the ballot box to the boardroom, the NAACP has led the fight for civil rights and social justice.

The NAACP and The Crisis Publishing Co. have partnered with Gibbs Smith Publisher to produce a 450+ page pictorial book that captures 100 years of the NAACP in pictures and historical highlights: NAACP: Celebrating a Century.

Pre-order your copy today! $40.00 plus $7.25 shipping ($3.00 shipping for each additional book)

Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Email _____

Quantity _____ Total Enclosed _____

Check or Money order (payable to Centennial Book)

Charge: (Circle one) Visa Mastercard AmEx Discover

Account No. _____ Exp. Date _____

Signature _____

Mail to: Centennial Book, The Crisis, 4805 Mt. Hope Drive., Baltimore, MD 21215. For more information, please call: 410.580.5137.

NAACP: WE ARE 100, 1909 - 2009

Please join the NAACP in celebrating its 100 years of remarkable history. Watch for these exciting activities and opportunities in 2009:

- 40th NAACP Image Awards - February 12, 2009
- NAACP Centennial Kick-Off/Annual Board Meeting - February 20, 2009, New York City
- NAACP Centennial 2009 Legacy Calendar
- NAACP Commemorative Lithograph by artists Elizabeth Catlett, Jonathan Green and Sam Gilliam
- NAACP Broadway Production, It Happened in Little Rock
- NAACP 100th Convention - July 11 - 16, 2009, New York City
- NAACP Centennial Gala - July 16, 2009, New York City
- NAACP Centennial Documentary

For more information on these and other centennial activities, please contact 212.344.7474, x2.