

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Divine Nine Fraternity | MOU Signed: February 24, 2026

About the Organization

Founded 1911 at Howard University · Headquartered in Decatur, GA

Omega Psi Phi is the first international fraternal organization founded on the campus of a historically Black college. Its cardinal principles — Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance, and Uplift — guide a brotherhood committed to community service, social justice, and developing leaders who build communities and achieve great success.

Partnership Purpose

Omega Psi Phi and the NAACP are collaborating to advocate for policy changes that ensure political, educational, social, and economic equality for all, and to increase civic participation among Black voters at the national, state, and local levels.

Civic Engagement Activities

- Encourage members to volunteer with NAACP's Indirect Relational Organizing Program — goal of 10% of active membership
- Coordinate GOTV activities at national, state, and local levels: canvassing, phone banks, text banks, and election protection
- Share nonpartisan research and messaging on Black voter engagement and voter issues

NAACP Tools & Resources Available to Partner

- Voter Action Network (VAN) — 50-state database access after completing VAN training
- Voter Engagement and Mobilization Tools — peer-to-peer SMS/MMS, voter registration, relational organizing
- Data, Messaging & Research Toolkit — GSSA data analytics and election strategy resources
- Building Community Voice Fund (BCVF) — grant opportunities for voter registration and turnout initiatives

Membership

Omega Psi Phi members are encouraged to join the NAACP as Annual or Life Members, with a goal of 10% of active membership. NAACP tracks participation via a unique organizational code.

How to Engage at the State & Local Level

- Identify Omega Psi Phi chapters in your state or city
- Connect with district or state-level Omega leadership for an introductory meeting
- Recruit chapter members as NAACP volunteer phone bankers and canvassers
- Partner on local civic forums and voter registration events at chapter meetings and Conclaves
