

Who we are - NAACP advocates, agitates, and litigates for the civil rights due to Black America. Our legacy is built on the foundation of grassroots activism by the biggest civil rights pioneers of the 20th century and is sustained by 21st century activists.

Why we work - We envision an inclusive community rooted in liberation where all persons can exercise their civil and human rights without discrimination.

Where we are - Although our National Office is located in Baltimore, MD, we have over 300 active youth units across the country. We know that national wins start locally and in order to win locally, our unit must have a committed base of members to support the mission. Luckily for you we are right here on campus/ in the community.

How you can help - The power of our organization relies on the strength of our membership. We understand that elections have consequences and our communities need dedicated and diligent members like yourself to keep us thriving. By joining, you'll contribute to a legacy of progress spanning over a century, working towards eradicating racial discrimination and promoting inclusivity. As a member, you'll be able to amplify your voice alongside a diverse community, actively engaging in initiatives, programs and activations that drive positive change in policies, education, and social dynamics.
